Important: You will need to choose a new individual health plan for 2018

Dear Subscriber First Name,

As of Jan. 1, 2018, Regence BlueShield of Washington will no longer offer individual health plans in your area. Please know this does not affect your current coverage, which remains in place through 2017.

However, you will need to choose a new health insurance plan for 2018.

Your next steps

We wanted to give you plenty of notice about this change. No action is needed until Open Enrollment, which begins Nov. 1, 2017. At that time you will be able to research your options and select a new health insurance plan. You either can go directly to a different health insurer or visit the health insurance marketplace at wabhexchange.org.

We understand the disruption this change may cause; we did not make this decision lightly. The Individual insurance market continues to be unsettled nationwide, and Washington is no exception. We are taking this action now, and will continue to advocate for stability in the markets, in hopes of better serving Washington long-term.

We will reach out closer to Open Enrollment to make sure you understand what you need to do. Meantime, if you have any questions, please call us at (888) 319-0798 or visit Regence.com/Notice.

Sincerely,

Chris Blanton
Vice President

Important: We will not offer your health plan in 2018.
You must take action.

Date

Dear Subscriber First and Last Name,

Why am I getting this letter?

Beginning January 1, 2018, we won't offer the health insurance coverage you currently have. This means you may lose your health coverage. On December 31, 2017, we will end coverage for the people in your household who currently have this health plan.

These people are:

Subscriber First and Last Name

Dependent First and Last Name separated by a comma

To keep health coverage in 2018, you must choose a new plan.

If some people in your household have a different kind of coverage—such as Medicare, Washington Apple Health, or a dental plan—they may get a separate letter about how to keep their coverage.

When do you need to make a decision?

The Open Enrollment period for 2018 coverage is November 1, 2017, through December 15, 2017. Coverage starts on the first of the month, and you must sign up by the 15th for your coverage to start the next month.

To make sure there isn't a gap in your coverage, and avoid paying a penalty, the deadline to enroll is December 15, 2017, for coverage that starts January 1, 2018.

What options do you have?

There are two ways you can choose to buy a new health plan:

1. Through Washington Healthplanfinder at www.wahealthplanfinder.org. Here, you can compare plans, find in-person help in your community, and see if you qualify for free or lower-cost options depending on your income. If you qualify for financial help, you can only get those savings if you enroll through Washington Healthplanfinder. The deadline to enroll is December 15, 2017, for coverage that starts January 1, 2018.
2. Directly from another company, or with the help of an agent or broker.

What should you consider before deciding to buy a different plan?

- ✓ Cost. Check to see if you have lower-cost options and compare plans through Washington Healthplanfinder at www.wahealthplanfinder.org.
- ✓ Providers. Health plans through a different company will have different doctors or hospitals from your old plan. Please contact the company to make sure that the plan you want to buy contains your doctor and other health care providers as part of its network.
- ✓ Benefits. Please contact the company to ask for the new plan's 2018 benefit booklet, which will include a description of benefits and the costs you pay when you use services.
- ✓ Drugs. Please contact the company to ask for your new plan's 2018 drug formulary, which will include a list of covered prescription drugs.

Important information about tax credits

Tax credits and other financial help are available to many people who buy a plan through Washington Healthplanfinder. Find out if you qualify at www.wahealthplanfinder.org.
